Blossom Time Open House is an annual affair and largely attended by people from far and near. In past years the Iowa State College put on demonstrations and the visitors were addressed by such speakers as Gov. John Hammill, Geo. Hamilton, E. C. Lytton, Dr. J. J. Boyland, Mayor Fred Hunter, Representative E. A. Elliott, etc. It will be about May 1st this year and last 10 days. Everybody is invited to come and see the blossoms and have a picnic lunch in the woods. Schools and Sunday School classes especially invited.
